

Year 5/6 Reading Objectives

1	Word Reading
1a	apply their growing knowledge of root words, prefixes and suffixes (morphology and etymology), as listed in English appendix 1 , both to read aloud and to understand the meaning of new words that they meet
2	Comprehension maintain positive attitudes to reading and an understanding of what they read by:
2a	continuing to read and discuss an increasingly wide range of fiction, poetry, plays, non-fiction and reference books or textbooks
2b	reading books that are structured in different ways and reading for a range of purposes
2c	increasing their familiarity with a wide range of books, including myths, legends and traditional stories, modern fiction, fiction from our literary heritage, and books from other cultures and traditions
2d	recommending books that they have read to their peers, giving reasons for their choices
2e	identifying and discussing themes and conventions in and across a wide range of writing
2f	making comparisons within and across books
2g	learning a wider range of poetry by heart
2h	preparing poems and plays to read aloud and to perform, showing understanding through intonation, tone and volume so that the meaning is clear to an audience
3	Comprehension understand what they read by:
3a	checking that the book makes sense to them, discussing their understanding and exploring the meaning of words in context
3b	asking questions to improve their understanding
3c	drawing inferences such as inferring characters' feelings, thoughts and motives from their actions, and justifying inferences with evidence
3d	predicting what might happen from details stated and implied
3e	summarising the main ideas drawn from more than 1 paragraph, identifying key details that support the main ideas
3f	identifying how language, structure and presentation contribute to meaning
4	discuss and evaluate how authors use language, including figurative language, considering the impact on the reader
5	distinguish between statements of fact and opinion
6	retrieve, record and present information from non-fiction
7	participate in discussions about books that are read to them and those they can read for themselves, building on their own and others' ideas and challenging views courteously
8	explain and discuss their understanding of what they have read, including through formal presentations and debates, maintaining a focus on the topic and using notes where necessary
9	provide reasoned justifications for their views
